EJD AUTUMN MEETING MALAGA, SPAIN, OCTOBER 19-20, 2012

1. Internal matters – Swiss delegation resigned from EJD;
2. EJD has representatives in every UEMS board, new delegates were appointed to the non occupied positions;
3. EJD general assembly expressed the disagreement with the concept of the EU specialty exams and certification, expensive and without any practical advantage;
4. new observers (possible full-members) were present - representatives of the young doctors organizations from Norway, Sweden, Turkey and European Young Psychiatrists in Training Organisation. Invitation to Russian organization;
5. EJD established an office in Brussels, all involved are employed on a one-year contract, the prolongation of these contracts will be revised and decided by the executive board and general assembly during EJD autumn meeting every year. The opening of the European Domus Medica will influence the decisions;
6. European Medical Mobility Website

The European Medical Mobility (EMM) was started as a European Junior Doctors (EJD) and European Medical Students' Association (EMSA) joint project. The main EMM goal is to facilitate training in the medical field within EU/EEA through an online database with a regular update system. The EMM website will not only gather official information regarding junior doctors training and working conditions, but also encourage (through the EMM online forum) the sharing of personal and useful viewpoints between Junior Doctors.
